

Publications Policy

The Rambler and its staff strives to settle for nothing but excellence as an online publication. We believe in the principles of honesty and integrity in reporting. Our responsibility as student journalists is to provide fair, balanced, comprehensive coverage of news, features, sports, entertainment, and the latest information about school events. We aim to inform and provide timely content to a broad cross-section of readers, including the Cathedral Prep student body, faculty, staff, administration, and alumni.

The Rambler is a news website updated daily throughout the academic calendar year with content written by student staff members. While all student journalists on The Rambler will uphold the terms of the Cathedral Prep Student Handbook, all articles and editorials are written by Prep high school students. Ideas and opinions expressed by student journalists are their own and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or official positions of Cathedral Preparatory School.

Letters to the Editor / Commenting Policy

We welcome your feedback and encourage our readers to share their thoughts and opinions. We will read all comments, suggestions, questions, and/or complaints. In order to be considered for publication, Letters to the Editor and comments on articles must include the author's name and a valid email address. Libelous, obscene, inflammatory, or off-topic comments will not be tolerated or published on the site in accordance with furthering the mission of Cathedral Prep.
